

National Association of Professionals concerned with Language Impairment in Children

NAPLIC CONFERENCE & AGM 2015

SEND reforms and SLCN: Good practice to support children and families

Saturday 16th May 2015
The University of Warwick

Keynote Speakers:

Christine Lenehan and Anne Fox

Director, Council for Disabled Children and Director, The Communication Trust
Achieving best outcomes for children and young people with SLCN in the reformed SEND system

Sue Roulstone

Professor, University of the West of England and The Bristol Speech and Language
Therapy Research Unit
Seeking children's perspectives: Responding to the SEND challenge

Marie Gascoigne

Better Communication CIC
The whole is greater than the sum of the parts: The Balanced System[®] for schools in practice

In addition, attend two seminar sessions from a choice of five!

- A. SLCN – Children's views and participation – Rosalind Merrick
- B. Person Centred Planning – Amy Duck
- C. Supporting progress in literacy: A case study – Pip St John/Allison Pickup
- D. Planning SLT provision through evidence-based practice – Rachel Reid/Nicola Cuthbert-Brown
- E. Parents as Partners – Linda Lascelles

This conference will be of interest to: Teachers and SENCOs, Teaching Assistants, Speech and Language Therapists, Advisory Teachers for SLCN, Educational Psychologists and LA Advisors

Member's early booking rate (prior to 16.3.14) held at the 2010 price - £95

Members booking from 17.3.14 - £130

Non-members booking prior to 16.3.14 - £155 and from 17.3.14 - £185

Further details at www.naplic.org.uk